

Touch Tomorrow Today

Your gift today impacts the WMU family tomorrow.

When you support a state or regional WMU's Touch Tomorrow Today (TTT) Endowment, you financially invest in the WMU family. Each TTT Endowment supports its state or region, national WMU through the Vision Fund, and the WMU Foundation.

Since the use of TTT funds is up to the discretion of the individual states and not restricted for usage, support of your state WMU TTT endowment is critical to advance its ministry and mission.

The TTT funds were used to help cover the costs of the California WMU Children's Missions Day Explosion events. These events have been successful in helping introduce GAs, RAs, and CAs to children in churches without missions discipleship and promoting WMU in California.

New York WMU recently held two separate events in English and Spanish. Part of the TTT grant was used in securing a flight for the guest speaker for the event where 130 women were able to attend.

Designating Virginia WMU's TTT grant to an effort to reestablish an emphasis on RAs resulted in an annual RA Racer event. There is a missional gathering for boys at a local amusement park, and the cost for participants is minimal because of the TTT funds.

Alaska WMU used its TTT grant to help with expenses connected to its annual Women on Mission Celebration. This gives Alaska women the opportunity to hear missionaries, WMU leadership, and others share about missions and WMU.

New Mexico WMU was able to have a first ever Pastors' Wives Retreat thanks to TTT funds. This was a chance to get to know pastors' wives and introduce them to WMU.
