We will share your story with the person being honored once your brick arrives.
We will send a gift acknowledgment to you by mail. When the brick arrives in 8-10 weeks, you will receive a picture of the actual brick.
If your brick is in honor or memory of someone special, we will be happy to notify them of your gift now and include an image of what their brick will look like. We will also send an actual photo of the brick to them when it arrives along with the story you provided above.
YES! I would like you to contact the person or their family to let them know about this gift.
