Your Gift Is Meant for the Mission

From its earliest days, WMU has helped believers understand they are meant for the mission—God's mission to make His name known in every place and among all people.

As the end of the year approaches, we pause with gratitude for faithful partners like you whose gifts to the Vision Fund make this life-shaping work possible. Your generosity is not simply charitable giving; it is a purposeful investment that helps people live out their calling to join God's work in the world.

The Vision Fund provides essential support for ministries that meet spiritual, physical, and emotional needs both locally and globally. From leadership development to biblically grounded missions discipleship resources for every stage of life, the Vision Fund enables WMU to equip believers to live on mission with confidence and compassion.

Your support directly fuels WMU's missions discipleship resources, which introduce children, students, and adults to God's global purpose and teach them how to pray, give, serve, and go. Through these experiences, hearts are shaped, faith is strengthened, and lives are aligned with God's calling.

Unlike gifts designated for a single project, the Vision Fund provides flexibility to respond to emerging needs and new opportunities for kingdom impact. It allows WMU to strengthen churches, equip leaders, expand outreach, and innovate as ministry contexts change. Simply put, it ensures missions discipleship remains strong so that each new generation can discover its place in God's story.

Giving to the Vision Fund is an investment in people and in the future of missions. The child who learns about missions today may become tomorrow's missionary, pastor, or faithful church leader. The church strengthened through WMU training today may become a sending church that reaches the nations for decades to come. Every dollar helps equip believers to be the hands and feet of Christ both at home and around the world.

As you plan your year-end charitable giving, prayerfully consider a gift to the Vision Fund. Whether a onetime contribution or recurring support, your generosity advances the gospel and helps others live out what they were created to do—be part of God's mission.

To give, visit donate.wmufoundation.com/vision-fund or mail your gift to WMU Foundation/Vision Fund, 100 Missionary Ridge, Birmingham, AL 35242. To discuss IRA or stock gifts, you can contact me (pdarby@wmu.org).

Thank you for partnering with WMU. Your gift matters because you—and those you impact—are truly meant for the mission.
